ALEX. GARD
PHOTOGRAPHIC
Corner Seventh and D Street

Having had these premises expressly fitted up as a Photographic Gallery, it has been stocked with the newest and most improved apparatus, and every arrangement has been adopted which could in any way facilitate the production of "Beautiful Pictures."

To avoid the fault so generally and justly complained of, the "Light" has been constructed so as to obviate all heavy and unnatural shadows under the eyebrows and chin. And the Chemical Department has been brought to such perfection that the sitting for a Carte de Visite rarely exceeds five seconds! Often not more than one or two!

The great difficulty which has heretofore existed of taking fine Photographs of Children and Family Groups is now, at this Gallery, a comparatively easy task.

The Operating Room will be open for sitters from 8 A. M. till 6 P. M.

IMPERIAL PHOTOGRAPHS,

Which, for brilliancy of light, transparency of shadow, and delicacy of delineation, surpass the finest Mezzotint Engraving, formerly sold for $35,

NOW ONLY $15!

All other sizes and styles elegantly finished, at prices equally moderate.

THE CARTES DE VISITE

Produced at this Gallery have already received the highest encomiums, and no effort will be spared to sustain the reputation of this department.

Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, and Photographs copied for Cartes de Visite, or enlarged and finished in Mezzotint, Oil, or Water Colors.

Paintings, Statuary, Models, Maps, Drawings, Engravings, &c., copied with dispatch.

Orders for Public Buildings, Family Residences, Family Groups, Picnics, Company, Regimental, and all other out door work attended to promptly.

PHOTOGRAPHIC INCIDENTS OF THE WAR.

The largest and finest collection of War Views ever made. Apart from the great interest appertaining to them, they stand unequalled as works of art. Amongst the contributors will be found the names of the most distinguished Photographers in the country.

The collection consists chiefly of views of and scenes on the battle-fields of the first and second Bull Run, Yorktown, Fair Oaks, Savage Station, Cedar Mountain, Hilton Head, Fort Pulaski, South Mountain, Harper's Ferry, Antietam, Fredericksburg, and Gettysburg. Views of Warrenton, Culpeper, Fairfax. Beaufort, Aquia Creek, Falmouth, Sharpsburg, Berlin, Ruins of Hampton, and various other interesting localities.

Groups of General Officers and Staffs. Groups illustrating Camp Life.—Portraits of General Officers on Horseback. A large collection of distinguished personages, Military, Literary, and Scientific.

A corps of artists constantly in the field, who are adding to the collection every day.
